This wonderful property was rebuilt from scratch just 3 years ago and converted into what everyone is looking for, location and price, plus it is a fully furnished and decorated property making it a move in ready. Just 10 minutes from a flat walk to the Allende Institute and 20 minutes walk from the city center, this property will be perfect if you want to rent it short or long term. On the ground floor you will find a complete and functional kitchen that has a water purification system, all appliances are new and high-end. On the ground floor you also find a full bathroom which is very functional for those extra guests, as well as a dining
