Upon entering the central courtyard, you're greeted by the fragrance of jasmine vines and the soothing sound of the fountain. A horseshoe-shaped covered gallery, typical of Mexican haciendas, provides access to the three ground floor bedrooms, as well as the living and dining areas. Moreover, this gallery serves as a spacious outdoor living and dining area, perfect for enjoying alfresco meals with loved ones.

If you're a fan of Laura Esquivel's "Like Water for Chocolate," you'll adore Quinta Mexiquito's kitchen. Nestled at the back of the property, it boasts ample storage,
