Hidden in the beautiful hills above San Miguel de Allende on the way to Queretaro lies Rancho La Purisima. Once you arrive, you feel you are in a tranquil paradise surrounded by palm trees, mature mesquite trees, garambullos, Pirules and Nopales, with a view of the picacho mountain range. The ranch is sold turn key with a few exclusions. The two bedroom ensuite main home looks over The Valley and the gardens on the property. There is a casita that can be used for staffing, an art studio, office or rent it out for a little extra income. There is a caretaker that will stay on to assist the buyers, if needed. Also on the property is a dressage arena and turn
