This property shows the kind of extraordinary results you can achieve when an architect perfectly exploits the location of a property to deliver a spectacular view of San Miguel. Walk into the soaring Great Room with a huge boveda arching over the staircase, and you see the whole center of the city, with its 18th century churches, framed by the ceiling to floor glass of the living room. Brilliantly designed with a spacious garden, outdoor patio, two view terraces and every modern convenience.
